2 MEN AND A WOMAN ARRESTED AND CHARGED IN WHITE PLAINS
FEDERAL COURT WITH ARMED ROBBERY OF ARDSLEY BANK

MICHAEL J. GARCIA, the United States Attorney for the Southern District of New York, announced that DARRYL HARRIS, a/k/a "Darrell Harris", GREGORY HARRIS, a/k/a "Glamour," and CHRISTINA DAWN DAVIS have been arrested for their participation in the October 11, 2007, armed robbery of the JP Morgan Chase Bank in Ardsley, New York.

According to the Complaints filed in White Plains federal court: On October 11, 2007, DAVIS drove with DARRYL HARRIS and GREGORY HARRIS to the JP Morgan Chase Bank located at 875 Saw Mill River Road in Ardsley, New York. Wearing masks, DARRYL HARRIS and GREGORY HARRIS entered the bank. Inside the bank, GREGORY HARRIS, armed with a BB gun, grabbed an individual and placed the individual on the floor. While GREGORY HARRIS held bank employees and customers at gunpoint, DARRYL HARRIS jumped on top of the counter and proceeded to take more than $21,000 out of the drawers. Then, DARRYL HARRIS and GREGORY HARRIS left the bank and fled with DAVIS who was waiting for them in a car outside the bank.

DAVIS and GREGORY HARRIS were arraigned in White Plains federal court before U.S. Magistrate Judge MARK D. FOX on October 19, 2007. GREGORY HARRIS was detained without bail. Bail has been set for DAVIS in the amount of a $100,000 personal recognizance bond to be secured by $25,000 in cash or property. DARRYL HARRIS was arraigned this afternoon before U.S. Magistrate Judge LISA MARGARET SMITH and detained without bail.

Mr. GARCIA said that the investigation is ongoing.

Mr. GARCIA praised the efforts and assistance of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, the Ardsley Police Department, the Yonkers Police Department, and the Greenburgh Police Department.

Assistant United States Attorney JOHN P. COLLINS, JR. is in charge of the prosecution.

The charges contained in the Complaints against the defendants are merely accusations, and the defendants are presumed innocent unless and until proven guilty.
